AWSN Scholarships $3000 each

The Alberta Women's Science Network is please to offer six $3000 scholarship awards for study in the 2010-2011 academic year.

Deadline: June 1, 2010

Eligibility criteria:

- Are you a woman who is a continuing full time undergraduate student entering at least a second year in a program in science or engineering at an Alberta university, college, or technical institute?
- Have you demonstrated leadership in the academic or community setting?

If the answer to both questions above is a resounding YES then we invite you to apply for the AWSN scholarship.

Six scholarships will be given out - educational categories are: University/College, and Technical Institute/Aboriginal Women/ Athabasca University:
Designation: Two Scholarships for University, One Scholarship for College and Technical Institute, One Scholarship for Aboriginal Women and Two Scholarships for Athabasca University

How to apply:

Please send

1. An official transcript sealed by the registrar of your university or other institution.
2. Your CV (Please note: a CV is a curriculum vitae: "A special type of resume traditionally used within the academic community. Unlike a resume, a CV tends to be longer and more informational than promotional in tone".)
3. One page (single-spaced 12 pt font) essay on your leadership experiences.
4. One letter of reference that speaks to this demonstrated leadership (please have the letter of reference in a sealed envelope with a signature across the seal).
5. Send email copies of your applications to awsn@awsn.com and hard copies of your applications to:
